A LIVING MUSEUM, TO SEE AGAIN AND AGAIN! A MUSEUM IN THE HEART OF PARIS

Located in the heart of the historic and trendy Marais, the Musée national Picasso-Paris is a must-see among the great Parisian museums.

The Musée national Picasso-Paris' exceptional collection is a result of a donation from Picasso's family members. Representative of Pablo Picasso's entire career, the collection is composed of major works from the artist's workshops, which he preserved until his death, and of his entire archives (more than 200,000 pieces), forming a faithful and intimate portrait of one of the most emblematic modern artists. This collection - considered to be the most important in the world - is housed in an exceptional 17th century mansion, nestled in the historic heart of French culture.

The mission of the Musée national Picasso-Paris is to explore, interrogate and share the artist's work. We begin a new chapter in the life of the museum with a new programme and new layout to display the collection on a permanent basis. We seek to encourage debate through a rich and open programme focused on the reception of Picasso's work, both today and during his lifetime, and aimed at a wide viewing public.

Come and explore the richness of Picasso's creation and make your encounter with the works a unique experience.

"The largest, most extraordinary, not to say extravagant of the great Parisian mansion of the 17th century." Bruno Foucart, art historian, 1985

The beautiful 17th century mansion of Aubert de Fontenay, commonly known as the Hôtel Salé, was chosen in 1974 to house the monographic museum dedicated to the life and work of Pablo Picasso.

Since the opening of the institution in 1985, this historical monument has been a prestigious setting for the museum's collection, with its original blend of French classical architecture and Italian baroque, its hemicycle courtyard and its grand staircase with its magnificent, sculpted decor.

The furniture by Diego Giacometti completes this majestic place and offers the public an exceptional setting for a visit. Timeless and away from the hustle and bustle of the city, this haven of peace invites you to take a break for contemplation.

GROUP VISITS

The Musée national Picasso-Paris offers group tours with museum guides who share their knowledge of Picasso and offer you a guided tour of the current exhibitions. The museum guides will know how to adapt the visit according to your interests. Groups accompanied by their own guide are subject to an additional speaker fee.
